WINNIE MADIKIZELA-MANDELA

The FW de Klerk Foundation was shocked to hear the news of Winnie Madikizela-Mandela's death. She was one of the dominant figures over the last 20 or 30 years in South Africa and was regarded by the ANC as the Mother of the Nation. Winnie Madikizela-Mandela was larger than life. She was always outspoken, sometimes controversial and will be much missed by her followers and by her friends.

The FW de Klerk Foundation would like to convey their condolences to her family and friends.
