

FW de Klerk
FOUNDATION

FW DE KLERK HOSPITALISED

FW de Klerk was hospitalised yesterday at the Panorama Hospital with a condition known as pneumothorax - which is an abnormal collection of air in the pleural space between the lung and the chest wall. He underwent a successful procedure this morning and it is expected that he will be discharged from hospital some time next week.

Issued by the FW de Klerk Foundation
27 October 2018